Your profile at a glance

All the important details about you are created and edited from this page. Most will only need to be entered once.

A screenshot of the user's profile page. The header shows a profile picture, the name 'CrewT Crew Member', and buttons for 'Document Locker' and 'Find a boat'. The main section is titled 'Details' and contains a bio: 'Just started sailing again after 10 years away from the sport. Previously I had completed several long offshore races, a handful of deliveries, and numerous seasons of twilights. Im now interested in joining as regular crew for the season.' Below the bio are fields for 'Full Name: Crew Test', 'Screen name: CrewT', 'Email: CWMV2crew@crewwith.me', 'Contact no: 000 000000001', 'Registration: YA 111177yc', 'Location: Royal Geelong Yacht Club, Geelong, VIC, 3220', and 'Club: Royal Geelong Yacht Club'. At the bottom, there is a 'Have you got a boat?' section with a 'Click to add' button and a 'Change password' link. Red boxes and arrows point to various elements: 'Your profile picture' points to the profile picture; 'Your screen name' points to 'CrewT Crew Member'; 'Document storage, & crewing availability modules' points to 'Document Locker' and 'Find a boat'; 'Your personal details' points to the bio; 'Use this box to note your past experience, and what you are looking for next' points to the bio; 'Change your password' points to the 'Change password' link; and 'Change password' points to the 'Change password' link.

Edit your public details

These are shown when you list as crew.

A screenshot of the user's profile page, similar to the one above, but with annotations for editing. Red boxes and arrows point to: 'Click the picture to upload a profile shot of your choice' pointing to the profile picture; 'Click the edit link to give yourself a new screen name' pointing to the 'CrewT Crew Member' name; 'Click here to add your experience & what you want next' pointing to the bio; and 'Edit' pointing to the 'Edit' button at the bottom right.

Step 6 – Highlight your crewing experience

This section allows you to note the experience level you have and can be used as a filter by skippers. You may enter several experience types, and then use the details section shown at step 5 to add more detail if needed

The screenshot shows the 'Crew Experience' form. At the top, there is a 'done Editing' link. Below it, there are two dropdown menus: 'Sailing Experience' and 'Sailing - Offshore racing'. A red box with an arrow points to the 'Sailing - Offshore racing' dropdown, containing the text: 'Use the drop down boxes to select an experience type, and level'. To the right of these dropdowns is a text box containing 'Waterproofs, tether, EPIRB,' and a 'More' link. A red box with an arrow points to this text box, containing the text: 'Use this text box to note what equipment you might already have'. Below the dropdowns is a 'Submit' button. A red box with an arrow points to the 'Submit' button, containing the text: 'Click submit or "done editing" to save these details.'. Below the 'Submit' button, there is a table with two rows. The first row is for 'Sailing Experience' and the second row is for 'Wakeboarding Experience'. Each row has a 'details' section and an 'edit' link.
